PROCEDURES Collection

of Information

- The information that Dadaa Ltd may request from a person will vary depending on whether the person is receiving a service from Dadaa Ltd, or is an employee, volunteer or stakeholder.
- Dadaa Ltd will collect relevant information directly from the person where possible, and as far as reasonably practicable will ensure the person understands and agrees to the collection of this information
- Dadaa Ltd may collect the information from another person who has legal responsibility for the person or who acts as a recognised Representative/Nominee for the person.
- Dadaa Ltd only collects information for purposes directly related to the delivery of service.
- The Service will only disclose information relating to a person with their consent, except in specified circumstances including emergencies or as required or permitted by law.
- There are some circumstances where Dadaa Ltd may receive information that was not requested. When this happens, Dadaa Ltd will use their discretion to determine whether the information should be acted on or followed up.
- Dadaa Ltd does not sell or give away any information that the Service collects.

Use and Disclosure of Information

- Dadaa Ltd only holds information for the primary purpose it was given. It is not to be used or disclosed to another party for a secondary purpose unless one of the following applies:
 - the person has agreed
 - the person would expect Dadaa Ltd to use or disclose the personal information for the secondary purpose as it relates to the primary purpose
 - it is required or authorised by law
 - a permitted general situation exists (as per the Privacy Act 1988)
 - a permitted health situation exists (as per the Privacy Act), in which case, steps must be taken to de-identify the information before it is disclosed
 - Dadaa Ltd believes that the use or disclosure of the information is necessary for an enforcement related activity (e.g. Federal Police, Immigration, ATO)
- Dadaa Ltd takes steps to protect the information it holds against misuse, interference, loss, unauthorised access, modification or disclosure.
- These steps include password protection for electronic files and securing paper files in locked cabinets.

- When information is no longer required it is destroyed, deleted or de-identified in a secure manner, unless Dadaa Ltd is required by law to keep the information.
- If a person asks for access to their information held by Dadaa Ltd, the Service will allow access unless there is a reason under the Privacy Act or any other law not to give access to the information. These reasons may include:
 - a serious threat to the life, health or safety of any individual, or to public health/safety
 - it would impact on the privacy of other individuals
 - the request is frivolous or vexatious
 - the information relates to existing or anticipated legal proceedings
 - it would prejudice negotiations with the individual
 - it would be unlawful
 - denying access is authorised by law
- Dadaa Ltd will respond to the request for access to the personal information within a reasonable time and will give access in the way requested by the person, if it is able to do so.

Dignity

- Staff members are required to treat Participants with dignity and respect and as far as reasonably practicable to protect the privacy and dignity of each Participant.

Confidentiality

- Dadaa Ltd will endeavour as far as practicably possible to advise each Participant of its confidentiality policy using a language, mode of communication and terms that the Participant is most likely to understand.
- Employees, volunteers and contractors who may have access to information in the course of their duties are bound by their commitment to confidentiality.
- Breaches of confidentiality by employees, volunteers and contractors will be dealt with in accordance with Dadaa Ltd's Code of Conduct.
